Platform Committee Split Up on Tariff, and Three Distinct Reports Probable.

Boss Kelly's Hand Shows Up in the Proceedings, and Cleveland Feels Its Weight.

Hewitt, of New York, Looming Up as a Compromise to Pacify John Kelly.

CHICAGO, July 7.—The scenes of activity about the Palmer House which is, at present, the great national political centre, were renewed early Sunday morning. By 8 o'clock the main corroidors of the hotel, and thoroughfares leading to it, were filled with great masses of people, which by their very numbers, made the progress of the cable cars and carriages very slow and at times well and cafes in the vicinity of the hotel was an army of men, hats in hand, waiting their turn for seats at the

In fact the crush has now become so great as to make comfort only a mat-ter of faint possibility and discomfort of being divided and scattered, as was the case with the republican national the presence of the great number of marching organizations, some of which resemble a full marching regiment, by their numbers, and while it seemed probable last night, that all were, or had, arrived on the scene of action, this morning witnessed the arrival of hosts of delegates, clubs, parties and individuals came pouring into the city on every train, without mit, and, as they moved directly upon the hotels, those places became, as the day wore on, inaccessible to every one except stalwart pushers. poned as late as 3 o'clock. The reason yet reported, but it is expected that a warm contest may occur in the is conceded, if it wins, it will serious-

The New York delegation went into session at 11 o'clock, and the inter-While Flower's peears to actuate every one in attend- cus this afternoon, his supporters conance upon the convention. The out | tend they are not opposing and out supporters of the New York | and that if the unit rule is defeated say that his nomination is practically settled; for, as goes Kings Kelly's room, with the sole purpose county, so goes the state, and the of organizing a campaign against the ald talk is loudest. Early to-day, another Indiana club, strong in numbers, the McDonald banner, and cheering. The Indianians are striving hard to impress others that he is the most remainder of the delegates from Min-Tennessee and Mississippi. The headquarters of the various states pre-sented the view of wearied n.en, began its session at noon to-day, chairman Barnum presiding.

Connecticut, W. A. Barnum; Delaware, Ignatius C, Grubb; Florida, Sau'l Pulisson: Georgia, George T. Barnes; Illinois, W. C. Goudy; Indi-ana, A. H. Brown; Iowa, M. M. Ham; Kansas, Chas. W. Biair; Kentucky. Jones; Maine, Edmund Wilson; Maryland, Outerbridge Horsey; Massachusetts, Fred. O. Prince; Michigan, New Jersey, Erastus Cleveland; New York, A. S. Hewitt; North Carolina, M. W. Ransom; Onic, N. W. Armstrong; Oregon, A. Noltmoroff; Pennsylvania, W. L. Scott; Rhode Island. J. B. Barnaby; South Carolina, F. W. Dawson; Tennessee, Rob't Looney; Texas, F. S. Stockdale; Vermont. E. B. Smalley; Virginia, John S. Barbour; West Virginia, Alexander Campbell; Wisconsin, W. F. Vilas.

M. Ransom; Onic, N. W. Armstrong; Oregon, A. Noltmoroff; Pennsylvania, W. L. Scott; Rhode Island. J. B. Barnaby; South Carolina, F. W. Dawson; Tennessee, Rob't Looney; Texas, F. S. Stockdale; Vermont. E. B. Smalley; Virginia, John S. Barbour; West Virginia, Alexander Campbell; Wisconsin, W. F. Vilas.

M. Ransom; Onic, N. W. Armstrong the result. It was understood that at the result. It was understood that at the meeting to-night Tammany decided to insist on a two-thirds major-like diegation, carrying a banner at their head, provoked the first outburst of enthusiasm in the body of the audience, and the cheering was hearty. The appearance of distinguished leaders among the delegates did not appear to be caught by the crowd, and there was no applause to mark their arrival. This held true till the familiar figure of Senator Thurman.

received 22; Bacon, 9; Hooker, 6, On motion of Mr. Prince, the nomnation of Hubbard was made unani-

The vote on the enforcement rule stood, it is stated, 64 to 82.

On motion of Mr. Hewitt, Mr. Prince was elected temporary secretary of the convention.

The following were elected assistant secretaries: E. L. Merritt, of Illinois; Geo. W. Guthrie, of Pennsylvania; G. L. Johnson, of Lowa: Robert

The vote on the enforcement rule stood, it is stated, 64 to 82.

CHICAGO, July 7—The following states, or simply spectators, were Hampton, Vance, Beck, Williams, Mcl'herson, Gorman, Farley, Voorthees, Pendleton, Jones, of Florida; Ransom, Lamar, Jonas, Holland, Harris, G. L. Johnson, of Lowa: Robert called, and every state has cast its

Maddox Bros. & Anderson, THE AUSTIN WEEKLY STATESMAN.

VOL. XIII. AUSTIN, TEXAS, THURSDAY, JULY 10, 1884.

As a result of a very long discussion, the committee decided that undetached coupons will not be accepted for admission to the conven-The committee adjourned till 10 o'clock to-morrow with no anticipa-tion, however, of having any business

THE EXCITING EVENT. The exciting event of the day was the struggle in the New York delegation and the heavy vote polled in favor of the unit rule, was argued, would force the Tammany opposition to close corners, but notwie inding what appeared to be a famous victory of the Cleveland followers, very few of the leaders were willing to concede the untrammelled success of Cleveland in the balloting, owing to the fierce nature of the struggle and the failure of a portion of the delegation to come out openly for the maj rity candidate. It had been acknowledged that if the caucus had ended with the certainty that New York would cast her full vote for Cleveland, sufficient western and southern strength would be at hand to make his nomination being used by the friends of other can-didates in pushing their claims for recognition. The Cleveland managers, wever, are in high feather, and claim as the result of the day's work, that the fight has already been won, and that it only requires the sitting of the convention to seal the fected their organization to-day, took a test vote as to their preferences. The position of the Pennsylvania delegation, is known to be for Randall; Deleware for Bayard; and Indiana

When the workmen quitted and Kentucky for McDonald. It is will cast her 12 votes for Cleveland. Iowa to-day took a vote and will, on vote was cast.

The Georgia delegation, to-day was Pulitzer, who spoke at length and hall with great earnestness. The impression on the delegataon was f avorable

Vermont instructed her chairman to cast the vote, as a unit, for Cleve-

In the event of his defeat, it is be-lieved the delegation would be divided rather evenly between McDonald, Thurman and Bayard. It is contended that, by the split in Ohio, that the delegation is, in a measure, healed, It is declared that McLean will be chosen chairman unanimously, the adherents of Thurman making this move, but it is in rising tiers, affording these workheld a session this forenoon, and arranged for a distribution of tickets and seating of delegates, and alternand seating of delegates, and alternand seating of mational committee will necessary to the national committee will necessary to the nece begin its session at noon to-day, and meetings of all the various state delegations begin at 10 o'clock. Ohio is egations begin at 10 o'clock. Ohio is was renewed with great vigor this after the control of the contro the fight to be made in the convention will be led by Tammany, and it ly complicate the situation and leave the Cleveland opposition in New to have ended, as a result of the cau-governor are greatly encouraged at those who went over to Slocum will fron taken by the Kings county return to Flower and make it a rallydelegation last night, in deciding to ing point for his supporters generally A caucus was held to day in John Kelly's room, with the sole purpose whole convention. Cleveland's supporters are working hard to offset the dyerse effect of Kelley, Faulkner, and that the unit rule could be dispensed with any time at option at any subse As a result of the caucus it is declared Massachusetts, Iowa, Kansas, cided to support the proposition on temper of the southern delegates is the floor of the convention. The toward Bayard or McDonald, and to Massachusetts delegation held a this end, those who have been startled meeting this evening which was adat the size and character of the Clevedressed by General Butler, in which land movement are now working. he said: "I will support the nominee Indiana has been urged to stand by the Palmer house this morning were of this convention, no matter who he

THE NEW YORK DELEGATION. The New York delegation met at deavoring to come to some agreement. It is reported in the lobbies that a on the ground.

The Connecticut delegation agreed to cast 23 votes for Cleveland, and It

The New York delegation met at ready for this contest also, and will 11 o'clock and continued in session defeat it by a large majority.

kdale, of Texas, nominated B. Hubbard, of Texas.

In, of Mississippi, nominated E. Hooker, of Mississippi, nominated E. Ho with a view thereby of winning the votes of Kings country in convention.

hundred miles, cate is its first glimpse of paradise in the person of Allan G. Thurman, of Ohio." [Cheers.]

for president and vice-president, no state shall be allowed to change its vote until the roll of states has been sine second the roll of states has been sine second to committee.

Simmons, credentials; W. T. McArtle, ly. He prayed that their deliberations would be guided to such conclusions as would best promote the glory for the honor of the party and of the vote. The vote of the presented, no matter the out-come of the caucus.

PERMANENT CHAIRMA

D. M. Harrison, · credentials; E. H. Mayers, resolutions; N. B. att, permanent organization: F. Brannon, vice - president; Daniel Farrell, secy; W. M. Ham, member of the national committe.

Massachusetts.— Hon. J. Abbot, chairman; J. W. Covery, secretary; B. F. Lowell, resolutions; Jno. W.
W. Corcoran, credentials; Jno. W.

Erabrook, vice-president of the convention. Pennsylvania,-E. B. Coxe, chairnan; Chas. Aunstker, secretary; (M. Hog, resolution;) Robt. S. Patterson organization; R. Potter, credentials; Jno. S DeVay, president, and D. Ereret, vice-president of the conven-Texas.-R. B. Hubbard, chairman, F. H. Bailey, secretary; Silas Hare; credentials; W. H. Burgess, organization; D. C. Giddings, resolutions; L. of the national comittee.

CHICAGO, July 8,-The day opened auspiciously for all the purposes of a great convention, held in the heat of July. Save that there is a mist in the The fact of the lack of unanimity is air, it is cool and bracing, and summer pparel does not burden the person. Crowds began to gather in the vicinity of the great hall in which the demperatic national convention is being held. At an early hour the door tenders and ushers reported for duty. At 8 o'clock, thousands of people were in waiting to enter and secure their seats inside the hall. Laborers were still being engaged in giving the finishing touches after having been employed during all of the preceding night. They did not desert the main platform Decorations were being hung to within half an hour of the time announced

When the workmen quitted the building and the scene was clean the nigh impossible. In the dining rooms given out that in the convention she picture presented was majestic, and truly so, with its sitting of fourteen thousand auditors. Every seat in the nformal ballot, give Cleveland 21, vast amphitheatre appeared to be oc-Bayard 2, Tildon 2 votes; one blank cupied, the attendance having its full quota of the fair portion of humanity in holiday attire. It is conceded that ter of faint possibility and discomfort has been greatly increased by the fact that the head quarters of the party have been centralized instead

The Conga delegation, to-day was in holiday attire. It is conceded that in picturesque effect, the arrangement and dressing of the hall excelled that the party have been centralized instead by General Faulkner in picturesque effect, the arrangement and dressing of the hall excelled that the party have been centralized instead by General Faulkner in picturesque effect, the arrangement and dressing of the hall excelled that in picturesque effect, the arrangement and dressing of the convention of the convention great vista of been lost by placing of the main stage at one side accommodated are much greater than at the first convention, due largely to formal vote, it was understood the formal vote, it was understood the brings the entire audience very much now the house of representatives, and closer to the stage proper and the delegates. The decorations are not profuse but striking and pleasing to the eye. The national colors predominating, and the only retarding feature is the main platform which is dwarfed in comparison to the magnificent proportions of the hall.

The delegates are seated in a square. immediately fronting the speaker's platform. On the dead level of the ters assigned to the press representathe lighting of the vast hall is complete, being flanked and crowded with great windows which pour their flood of light on every portion of the audi-torium, even with a dull leaden sky session of the space above the speak-ers' platform, and burst forth with a van. From that moment the crowd streamed in without ceasing until at noon, when the hall had its full com-as a very effective weapon by the opponents of Mr. Cleveland, and there is now everything to indicate that the recent their favorite, and not to be tempted Speaker Carlisle arrived from Wash-11 o'clock, and at 2 p. m. were still en- ington this morning, and goes to swell

The committee on resolutions is generally regarded as having a majority for a conservative platform. It contains extremists of both Vermont will also vote as a unit for views, and a number whose position has not been clearly A strong point is being made for Justice Field, that his opicion in the cases involving consitutional questions and the case involving consitutional questions. ject may have to be brought out on the floor of the convention. Another of the things which now appears certrines; as to the limitations as the powers of the government, and that his nomination would attract strong vention, over the unit rule, and notday by the Tammany people, the

THE APPROACH OF THE HOUR. tant bearing on the final action of the convention, and the hallway in front of the room in which the session was held, was filled with a throng of people anxious to secure early tidings of the doorways which provoked contracts.

Among United States senators present, either as delegates or alter-Iowa-H. H. Tremble, chairman; of God and the welfare of the nation. BARNUM'B ADDRESS.

The chateman said: gentlemen of desire and determination to nominate hearty support. (Cheers.) a ticket for president and vice president which will be satisfactory to the north and the south, the east and the ummings, organization; Hon. Jas. directed by the unanimous vote of the national committee to name the Hon. Richard B. Hubbard, of Texas, for temporary chairman of this conventemporary chairman of the conventemporary chairman of the conventemporary chairman of the conventemporary chairman of the c C. Alexander, vice-president of convention; Will Lambert secretary of the convention; O. L. Holt, member Hon. R. B. Hubbard for temporary that the convention of the conventio chairman, will say aye; contrary, no. Hon. R. B. Hubbard, of Texas, is unanimously elected temporary chairman of this convention. The chair appoints Schator B. F. Jones, of Louisiana; Hon. George F. Barnes, of Georgia, and Hon. Abram ewitt, of New York, a committee to wait upon Mr. Hubbard and conduct him to the chair. "Gentlemen of the convention: I have the distinguished honor of presenting to this convention Hon, Richard B. Hubbard, of Texas, elected, absolutely, impartial temporary chairman of this conven-

HUBBARD'S SPEECH. he chair, gave thanks for the honor done him, and which he accepted, not as a tribute to himself, but a compliment to the great state from which he came; a state which was absolutely cosmopolitan in every fibre. The democratic party, in all its elements, was the same as it was when founded by the framers of the constitution nearly three quarters of a century ago. Men died as the leaves in autumn, but the principles underlying liberty and self (cheers.) It would have had the presidency too, but for the hands of the robbers who struck down the expressed will of the people by neans of perjury, bribery and corruption. The presidency had been stolen from the democratic party by the uttering of falsehoods through heroic statesmen and patriots, had who love their country better than exercise his privilege form. [Cheers] It wanted a platform too that would (applause). speak in no doubtful tones, or as a against the enormities of the civil

The rest of the temporary organizaconvention shall govern this body except that, on voting for candidates, individual delegates from the state and their individual preferences, as expressed, shall be recorded the credentials which permitted them erable of his strength deserted him as the vote of such state. [Laughter | to be here at all.

said that the convention of his state cratic party in the city of New York, had directed that, in compliance with an immemorial usage in that state, the sentiment of its majority should be first ascertained, and, that having been done, the vote of the New York delegation should thereafter be cast as a unit. The convention of New York having placed upon its delegates that trust, he challenged the right of this convention to strip the New York ferred; such action would not pass members of that body. without protest from at least, some passed by the Saratoga convention. He said New York alone had no vention, Every member from that chairman should express the will of the state by the casting of its 72 votes as one. He bade them pause before they struck down, ruthlessly, the ex-

Mr. Grady of New York spoke in support of his amendment. He claim-ed that the delegates from New York had been misrepresented in this matter. There was great danger, through the power of influence, of political this convention would adopt the old

Hon, J. R. Doolittle, of Wisconsin. said the question was a fundamental one. That question was: "Has a state west-nay more, a ticket that will the right to speak for itself, or not, in harmonize the democracy throughout the election of presidents of the United the union and insure victory in No- States?" The state always has spoken vember. Harmony has prevailed in as a unit. It could do so in no other the deliberations of the national com-mittee, and no effort was made to president of the United States should ominate a temporary chairman in the he not be chosen in the same way contrary, one who shall preside over the deliberations of this convention with absolute impartiality in that interest of any candidate; but, on the That is my voice. The several states with absolute impartiality in that of states as well. This convention spirit; and to that end, I have been should be slow to interfere with that the voice of a state should be obeyed by its electors. The same at-tempt that was made now, had been made in the republican convention of 1880 in favor of General Grant, but had been defeated. He admitted the state convention of New York had adopted a resolution to favor the unit rule, and he had not opposed it because he believed the choice of the majority would be what it was not

[Laughter.] The fact still emained that whatever was done in the New York state convention could not control the action of the national mocratic party. There was no power in the convention that could make a recording secretary place a line in the minutes of the convention, Ex-Governor Hubbard, in taking and falsify its proceedings. If the chairman of the delegation announced twenty-four of his colleagues as for whom they had already announced their intention not to vote, the secretary who so reported them (he and his voting in a form which their lips denied, and that would be an outrage on free speech. Gen. Clunie, of California, said his elegation came all the way from Caligovernment were eternal; and the fornia to vote for the great political principles that underlay the democratic party could not perish from the Speaking to the question at issue, he earth, although their authors might said the delegates from New York ceare to be, (applause). The democratte party was to-day as much a large. It would be an outrage upon party organized for aggressive war, the minority not to permit them to as when victory perched upon its vote according to the wishes of their banners. The democratic party had constituents. In the name of justice, decency and fair dealing, he called would have had the senate but for upon the convention to permit the distreason in the senate chamber itself, trict delegates to vote in accordance the amendment offered by Mr. Grady. Why, he asked, should a man be presented as a reform candidate, and an attempt be made to nominate him? the uttering of falsehoods through pale lips and chattering teeth. Some of the men who had participated its delegates to vote as a unit, in the regime had proved the structed its delegates to vote as a unit, in that crime, had passed "beyond the river." there to give an account of would be disobeying their state; but the presidency was the greatest c.ime that. (Applause.) He would probably be found voting differently from Mr. Grady on the question of candidricks, with the dignity which became dates, and he wanted a free vote now he was one of the minority and would self and power. [Cheers.] The demo- against the choice of the majority cratic party now wanted reform and, but, as a democrat and as a man, loval should put forward candidates whose to his constituents, he would be obenames would be in themselves a plat- dient to the orders of the convention. and bow to the will of the majority delphic oracle; it should declare against corruption in the government; word of discussion as to the unit rule. service; against the so-called department of justice; against the abuses of body had agreed to it in advance. the postal service; against robbery in Mr. John Kelly, of New York, adhigh places; that the burdens of the vocated Mr. Grady's amendment. signal for the arrival of the first of the delegates—Tennessee leading the van. From that moment the crowd and that the hundred millions of surbut ten or twelve were democratic. plus revenue shall not be allowed to accumulate. In conclusion Ex-Gov. Hubbard urged that whatever candities of New York which would elect dates were nominated they should be a democratic president if an opportu-York delegation, as indicated in these dispatches last night, is being used as a very effective weapon by the opponents of Mr. supported loyally, that any one designation democration with the would not so support them, would not be a good democrat, and hardly a patroit, (appealed to the sense and liberality of pealed to the sense and the convention in favor of Mr. Grady's spoke against the Grady amendment. There has been, he said, an extraordinember of the delegation, then the right to prescribe the form in which vote for some one as against the gover secretary shall call the names of the that will should be expressed. He nor of New York.

Mr. Kelly replied that Mr. Fellows Mr. John R. Fellows, of New York, represented one branch of the demoand he (Kelly) another. Mr. Fellows suggested that they represented only different organizations, in the democratic party.

Mr. Kelly-said that the gentleman's purpose now was to ignorehim (Kelly) and not to allow him a vote in the convention It was against that (Kelley) protested (cheers). Mr. Fellows proceededed with his argument. All that the majority of the New York delegates desired to do was to express her sentiments in a certain prescribed form. The convention should not take away that right. state, in this convention, voted for the enforcement of the unit rule and the delegation itself had declared, by more than two-thirds majo-ity, that its cally) that Mr. Kelly and himself were Grady such eloquent denunciation of machine methods. [Laughter and applause.] They all understood that evplause.] They all understood that everything which they did was the spentaneous outcropping of the popular will, [Laughter.] and that the large will, [Laughter.] and that the large will, [Laughter.] and that the large will had received would be made by before the announcement of the result, the chair recognized Mr. Grady, large, in adherence to constitutional of New York, who claimed that the hand of arbitrary power never controlled their political methods. In conclusion, he asked whether the controlled their political methods. In conclusion, he asked whether the controlled their political methods. In conclusion, he asked whether the controlled their political methods. In conclusion, he asked whether the controlled their political methods. The spacious rooms were crowded to the chairman called on Mr. Manvention would strip New York of her power in this matter. [Cries of "No, lowing one another.

no!"]
The faction quarrell between the vote was.
Thurman and anti-Thurman factions, Mr. Mar. the question af one whether an attorney, with delegated powers, would be permitted to violate and exceed these delegates first arrived. At least a atool, it is stated of the Recognition of the Company of the convention.

The following we detected temporary secretary of the convention of the Company of ie country, and New York might state of New York was withheld temtake its place in column, and he hoped porarily, and when all the other states were called the aggregate, without democratic method. Let every man New York, stood 332 noes to 391 ayes. the convention—harmony seems to be speak his sentiments and vote his The vote of New York was then callthe sentiment of the convention, sentiments, and then whatever senti- ed for, and Mr. Manning, the chairven the air seems saturated with a ment prevails, all would give them a man of the delegation, announced 72 temporary organization be made votes in the negative. That vote was challenged by Mr. Cochran, but the temporary chairman had the vote re-> result was then announced as ayes, The vote was then taken on original resolution offered by Mr. Smalley, of Vermont, and it was adopted for the appointment of a committee on credentials and permao platform be referred to it without > that when the convention adjourn it be till 11 a. m. to-morrow. The motion prevailed.

tion of the vote on the Grady amendment, as follows: Total vote cast, not voting, 7. Adjourned CREDENTIAL COMMITTEE.

The committee on; credentials appointed by the national convention met to-night in the rooms of the Missouri delegation to act on the creden-tials of various delegations. A contest in the Massachusetts deleommittee at an adjourned meeting to be held in the morning.

The resolution introduced in the ing full membership to delegates from the territories and the District of Columbia, was taken and a committee from the territorial delegations were invited to appear before the convention and present their argument. Samuel Ward, of Montan-Wm. Dickson and Ed. Wrigh of the District of Colum Wright bia, made an argument on the rights of a territory to representation and a voice in the selection of national rulers, and the committee unanimousy resolved to commend the passage of the resolution to the convention.

THE THURMAN BOOM. The entire California delegation visited the Ohio headquarters, and Mr. Turply, of California, speaking for his state, said that if the Ohio people would abandon the candidacy of Mr. Hoadley, and would accept in his place Mr. Thurman, the Pacific coast would gurrantee lo him a solid Carolina, but the entire union.

PLATFORM COMMITTEE. CHICAGO, July 8.—The committee on platform of the national democratic convention met in the parlor of the Iroquois club, to-day, at 8:30, thirty six members being present. Mr. Malcolm Hay, of Pittsburg, was R. Morrison, of Illinois, was nominated for permanent chairman of the Morrison, against 18 for Converse. young democracy of the northwest. This tie to a good something of a lit was their fair due. It was a tribute sensation among the members, and to their lofty zeal and patriotism. They another ballot was ordered, which resulted exactly in the same way. It being apparent that there was a dead | convention was assembled to consider ock in the committee, it was agreed a great cause; to pronounce a momenthat the temporary chairman should act as chairman during the that when the work was done the committee should elect a permabe to present their resolutions to the convention. A chat with members of tee, elicited the information that the representatives of the states of North Caroling, Alabama, Mississippi and The anti-tariff people had relied upon these votes and had expected that, with a full committee, the votes

CASUAL NOTES. hotels in comparison to the crush and confusion of the preceding. The mul-Smally, of Vermont, a member of the nary misconception of the issue in-national committee, offered a resoluvolved. It did not look to stifling the voice or repressing the sentlment of any delegates. The question was caucusing, however, went on as usual, whether the state of New York had a and there was what appeared to be a no state should be allowed to change its vote untill the roll of the states had been called, and until every state had cast its vote.

Whether the state of New York and a final rally against the Cleveland by the claimed to-night the control of the states had cast its vote.

Whether the state of New York and a final rally against the Cleveland by the claimed to-night that victory was clearly in units to speak seventy-two different units to speak sevent Mr. Grady, of New York, offered as an amendment, the following: "And when the vote of a state, as announceratic method of ascertaining what it is only the field against Cleveland, ced by the chairman of the delegation her will was, but when the will of the with the opposition leaders devising of such state, is challenged by any majority was ascertained, she had a plans to consolidate the scattering Last night the Bayard boom took to-day, and then a move was made in the direction of Thurman.

egation is divided and a strong effort exchange. In conclusion, he counselwas made to-night to consolidate ed moderation in their action, and bethat Massachnsetts and a considerable self in the discharge of his duties, portion of the south and west would REGULAR BUSINESS, that a telegram was sent to Gov. Snowden's motion to go into nominaopportunity for a fair race, and Mr. negative. When the state of New McLean being urged to the same end, York was called its vote of 72 was an-GOV. BUTLER

With the exception of Maryland, it interrupted. ould not be ascertained that any serious defection had occurred in the column of the southern states, which the ushers be instructed to enforce was endowed by Gen. Durben Ward,

The Ohio headquarters at the Palmer house, to-night, presented a scene of excitement growing out of this fact. house, to-night, presented a scene of excitement growing out of this fact. The spacious rooms were crowded to suffocation, the speakers rapidly following one another.

The faction quarrell between the report was at variance with the one of the power of monopolies, in defence of the corruptions of the age, Mr. Thurman had no peer except Mr. Tilden, (applause) delegation, to state again what the vote was.

of Delaware platform and addressed evention. He said "he had structed to present the name of a m in, worthy to receive the nomination. He did so under a realizing ing on the convention, to act so that he ar at opportunity which God himself (no reverently believed) had given -not a sign of increasing strength.

The democracy called for a candidate wisdom and experience were known It demanded a leader whose chivalous conduct would never falter and who could and would, bring to the dust the "plumed knight" of false pretence, of all personal dishonor. It public and private character, the very

The man who was all this and more,

Bayard, as a candidate, would make no mistake. His name would still the voice of faction. He would carry every doubtful state, and which were now doubtful republican states. (Applause.) Enthusiasm would take the place of apathy, and would grow and still grow as the leaves were fallen until the decay of November was made ripe and glorious by the peons of democratic victory. (Loud cheers. When the state of Indiana was called Mr. Hendricks, of that state, came to the platform amid great applanse.

in the management of federal affairs, and if the convention would give them half an opportunity they would execute that purpose in the election of a president in the coming fall. [Cheers.] He believed the nominee of this convention would become the president of the United States-the rst inaugurated democratic presiden n 24 years. [Cheers.] He spoke o the official corruptions of the repub lican party, and referred to Secretary Chandler's recent testimony perore a senate committee, in which he said that the defalcation in one of his bereaus would not exceed $53,000 and yet, forty years ago, an administration had gone down because of a defalcation of $60,000. In regard to ivil service, he said there were men ability in the public service, and he iven out of the offices, but should be ontinued. None others but the fittest should survive.

Referring to the foreign policy of the government, he said it would be a beautiful spectacle if this republic—so strong, so secure—should lead the nations in a manuscript.

nations in a movement for a permanent peace, and for the relief of the people everywhere, from standing came down to the subject of his speech of the convention, a citizen of Indiana—Joseph R. McDonald, He declared that if he were in find fault with the dandid and frank manner of his reception. He did not speak for himself alone, or McDonald diana, which had instructed her dele gates to present Mr. McDonald's name white house all he asked was justice.

search warrant, and determined with A wise legislator, a true financier, a brave statesman, his record glitglories were those of the people.

John W. Breckenridge, of California, introduced by the chairman as the son of the last democratic vice-next came to the platform. He said that the delegates from California had been instructed to present for the consideration of the convention, a man who needed no eulogy, whose

American people; a man who, if nom-inated, would be the next president of the United States. That man was Allen G. Thurman, of Ohio. For more than twenty years, Mr. Thur-man had been the boldest and ablest advocate of democratic doctime and democratic principles. The only objection urged against him was that to that was that this was not a state president who was mo justly deprived of his Cheers.

He favored the monetization an inquisition, McDonald was

He said the people demanded a change PERMANENT CHAIRMAN. ganization met this evening, and decided to recommend to the convention | nation the name of Col. W. F. Vilas, of sense of the great responsibility rest Wisconsin, for permanent chairman, and that the remaining officers of the presented, no matter

CHICAGO, July 9-The convention was opened with prayer by the Rev. Bishop McLaren. He prayed that the proceedings might be tempered by the corded as announced. The general ber contemplation of the future, so that future generations might enjoy the results of a law of regulated liberty, and not have to suffer the consequences of a rash disregard of the eternal laws of God. Mr. Jenkins, of Wisconsin, sent a communication from the committee on resolutions, saying that the work of the committee would not be comleted until to-morrow morning. Mr. Cumming, of Massachusetts, of fered a resolution instructing the comnittee on resolutions to give a hearing o a committee of the Irish national The secretary announced a correcleague, in favor of excluding aliens from acquiring real estate in Amerantithesis and opposite of the nominee of the republican party. (Cheers.) Mr. Taylor, of Arkansas, chairman of the committee on credentials, reported that the list of delegates should and whose name was now leaping from their lips to their mouths, was Thos. F. Bayard. (Loud cheers.) Mr. e amended by giving territorial delegates the right to vote in the conven-

Mr. Randolph,of New Jersey, moved an amendment that the territorial delegates should not be allowed to gation was made in one of the districts and contestee and contestant were notified to appear before the portance of letting the national democratic committee select its chairman The resolution introduced in the union, and declaring that it shall not convention by senator Voorhees grant-Reterred.

A resolution against polygamy was referred.

Further resolutions were offered and referred to the committee on platform-against the acquisition of large tracts of public lands by corporations; for reform in the civil service by making post masters elective; against the unit rule in future conventions; for a systematic reduction of tarriff taxes; providing that, in case of the death of candidates for president or vice president, the chairman shall call together the convention again to fill the vacancy. The report of the committee on permanent organization was then made. The name of W. H. Vilas, of Wisconsin, being presented as president with a list of vice presidents one from each state and several secretarie and assistants, and that the secretaries democratic vote and victory, which and corks of the temporary organiza-he believed, would not only include tion be continued under the permaand cirks of the temporary organizanent organization. The report was unanimously adopted, and Mr. Hendricks, of Indiana with five other gentlemen, were appointed a committee to escort Mr Vilas to the chair. The temporary chairman (Ex-Gov.

Hubbard) in presenting Mr. Vilas ance shown toward himself, and chairman would need much less. Mr. Vilas, on taking the chair, renot as a recognition of himself, but the the coming triumph. (Applause.) This tous judgment. Its hands were on the helm of a mighty nation—earth's this convention. Its import and value tory, in clutching the spoils of The opportunity was pregnant with mighty possibilities party, which had recently had its convention here, had tendered nothing worthy of the fervent aspirajoicing in restored unity and concord it tendered the renewal of sectional strife; to a nation that felt the imand misfortune to a proud and sensifrom dishonesty and corruption. [At this point Gen. Butler entered the hall and was heartily applauded.] The speaker, resuming, said that the counform from the party in power, but growing conviction that the only hope lies in the utter defeat of the party in power, and there is but the wisdom and patriotism of the to the great responsibility. It is the party of Jefferson and Jackson, to-day, and the principles they promulgated are its principles now. It is the party of the people; of economy and honesty in the administration of the venal and time-serving, and has recruited from the ranks of its oppo-nents the best and purest. The dem-It is well known that the Ohio del- ecracy were ready to continue such an Hoadly, asking him not to stand in the tions. The question was taken by a way of Thurman, who now had the vote by states and resulted in the nounced in the negative amid great sought out Mr. McLean to-night, and had a long consultation with him, it is supposed to this end, column of the southern states, which had hither declared an adherence to the Bayard movement. Maryland decided by a majority of five, to vote as a unit, on the second billot for Cleveland. It was stated, in a very positive way, however, that the encouragement which the Thurman movement had received would impel his formal nomination, and that the

Mr. Manning gave it as seventy-two ions and, with Thurman as the presi-

Land Dealers and General Agents

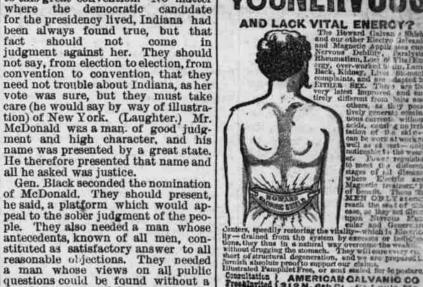

Buy and Sell Land Certificates. Examine and Perfect Titl -Lands Examined and Division, Lands Bought and and Sout Patents Obtained. Taxis Lands Redeemed.

Investments Made. Prompt attention to all 1. General Land office and to make che partments. Corresponding Secretary SUPERIOR ADVANTAGES For the comfortable and rapid transport of passengers.

LEAVING ST. LOUIS 8.00 a. m. exce

LEAVING ST. LOUIS 8.00 p.; Two Sleepers for Chicago Chair Car.

WHY WILL ANY ONE SUFFER FROM CORNI when they can get a bottle of the "GERMAL CORN REMOVER"—a certain and painless reas-edy for both Corns and Bunjons—of any Drungle GLENN'S SULPHUR SOAP IMPROVES THE SKIN